

Privacy Notice for Bus Lane and CCTV Penalty Charge Notices (PCNs)

Nottingham City Council Information Compliance

Parking Regulation and Compliance Community Protection Commercial and Operations PN-164

07/2020

We will use the information provided by you as the registered keeper of the vehicle alongside information provided by the DVLA for: the issue of a PCN for a Bus Lane or CCTV contravention, to process your payments for such PCNs, and to process any appeal representations you may make. The basis under which the Council uses personal data for this purpose is that this is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest by the Council or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Council.

You are not obliged by statute or contract to provide the information requested in the PCN form, but you will need to provide the information in order to make PCN representations as per the Bus Lane Contraventions (Penalty Charges, Adjudication and Enforcement) (England) Regulations 2005.

The information that has been provided by the DVLA and by yourself will be kept for 6 years.

The information provided by you may also be used for the purpose of any other function carried out by the Council. Information about these functions and the legal basis on which information is used for them can be found at <http://www.nottinghamcity.gov.uk/privacy-statement/>. The Data Controller is Nottingham City Council, Loxley House, Station Street, Nottingham NG2 3NG. The Data Protection Officer is Naomi Matthews. You can contact the data protection officer at the above address or at data.protectionofficer@nottinghamcity.gov.uk.

The new data protection law known as the General Data Protection Regulation provides for the following rights as prescribed by the legislation:

- A right to request a copy of your information
